TEACHER: Patsy Gorveatte is well known in the rug hooking world. Patsy has been teaching the Finishing Your Rug Workshop at the Museum for a number of years and is the Director of the School House Rug Hookers.

INTRODUCTION: The Halifax Citadel Town Clock is a majestic landmark in downtown Halifax, NS, and I am excited to bring it to life through the art of rug hooking. A few years ago, I created a rug hooking piece inspired by this iconic building, which profoundly deepened my passion for this craft. Patsy is now proposing a class to teach a smaller/simplified version of this pattern, focusing exclusively on the town clock and its surrounding natural elements.

WORKSHOP: This is a 3 day class to accommodate the detailed work required for this project.
Day One: Hooking the clock face and surrounding structure.
Day Two: Hooking the main lower structure, including the pillars.
Day Three: Hooking the natural elements such as grass, sky, water.

FOCUS: Design provided by Patsy. Custom or pre-purchased patterns will not be accommodated to ensure consistency and focus.

MATERIALS: Pattern is approx. 14" x 20" on linen. Price of pattern will be confirmed by Patsy closer to the class and must be purchased directly from Patsy @ pgorveatte@gmail.com
Students can use smaller pieces of their own wool fabric, with only a few colours requiring larger quantities.
